

Performer Bio

Born and raised in Phoenix, Arizona, L began singing at the age of five. L.'s sound and her growth as an artist evolved because music has always been a part of her world. In the beginning, family reunions, weddings and church programs allowed L.'s voice to be heard.

Encouraged by instructors, family and friends, L. became involved in contests, musical revues and bands, by age sixteen. After college, one of L.'s first performances was in front of 2,500 people. Her lead vocals brought new and subtle dimensions to her song selections. To diversify her talents, L. joined a theatrical company, whose production included a musical ensemble of "Le Miserables", "Phantom of the Opera", "Madam Butterfly" and "Miss Saigon". L. sang solo and duets. Continuously moving forward, L. participated in more competitions and was awarded 1st place in the "City Semifinals". Winning this event, sent her to the 1998 Karaoke Statewide Finals in Arizona.

Always meeting new challenges as her career progressed, L. had 1 day to create her own interpretations, when asked to fill in as lead vocalist, for the "Follow Your Dream" production in Dallas, TX. She delivered the sounds and melodies of "Light of the World", "Godspell", "Because You Love Me" and "Love Can Build a Bridge".

Throughout her multifaceted approach to music, L.'s participation in cover bands has been another vehicle to showcase her musical skills. Being the front person, singing leads and duets, L's range includes pop, r&b, cross over country and salsa. Whether on lead vocals, performing in musical productions or teaching her students to sing and take 1st place in competition, L. has always connected with her audience.

"Without music, life would be an error", a quote L. embraces every day. "I have been singing for as long as I can remember". It's always been a part of me. It's always been my passion. When I sing for an audience, I know we have shared an intimate moment. For a moment, we have touched each other's hearts.". Because of her desire and commitment, L. has composed a CD that demonstrates the broad extent of her range and skills. Each selection illustrates L.'s special talent and her capability "to touch your heart".
